On December 5, Sinter Klass Eve, children set their wooden shoes by the fireplace, window or kitchen stove. Other gift giving takes place at this time or on Christmas eve. Many gifts hold poems or funny rhymes. The Christmas season is announced on the first Sunday of Advent with the blowing of horns. Holland celebrates Christmas on December 25 & 26. Gift giving is past so these two days are spent at church service or family dinners. The noon meal on Christmas day is called Koffietafel and is like Breakfast. At 7:00 p.m. families enjoy a ham meal.
