“Happy Christmas” is the traditional English Christmas greeting. “Wassailing” is a British tradition where people walk up and down the street singing carols while sipping a hot punch-like drink. Wassail means “be in good health.” Scots say Nollaig chridheil huibh. Welsh say “Nadolig Llawen.” Irish say “Nollaig Shona Duit.”